To the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in Congress assembled.

The membership of Salem Monthly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends comprising residents of the cities of Salem, Lynn and adjacent towns hereby earnestly petition your honorable bodies to make no further appropriations for increasing the naval armaments of the United States or the number of her war ships, and this we do for the following reasons.

1. We believe all war to be contrary to the spirit of the Gospel.
2. We fully endorse the sentiment expressed by a leading citizen of Massachusetts (our present Governor) that "Arbitration is the watch word of the nineteenth century and of centuries that are to come."
3. We believe that the action contemplated by the Senate Naval Committee would be at variance with the pacific policy of our Government and would deprive the nation of the vantage ground she now holds as the advocate of Peace among all Nations.

Signed on behalf of the aforesaid Mo. Mtg. held at Salem, Mass. 4th mo. 10th, 1890.
